Green, Royal Go To Y. Conference

Meetings Sponsored by Y. M. C. A. For Members of Hi-Y Organizations

Bruce Green and Raymond Royal were sent to the Michigan Older Boys' Conference at Jackson, Mich. Richard Harner and Mr. Elkins accompanied them. The Conference was held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Jackson, Mich., on Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1.

Many prominent men were featured as speakers. They spoke on different phases of the subject, "Learning to Live Today."

The conference was planned to provide Christian leadership, to encourage clearer thinking, higher purposes and more Christian living among the older boys and young men who are members of church Hi-Y Clubs and other Young People's organizations. There was a Conference fee of $3, the only expense, other than transportation, for attending the Conference.

The boys were guests in the Jackson homes. The Michigan Older Boys' Conference is held under the general direction of the Y.M.C.A. of Michigan and with the cooperation of other state educational and religious groups.

River Rouge Debaters Defeat Ypsi's Team

Presenting an entirely new case to the Ypsi team the River Rouge debaters defeated the negative side from this school. After 90 minutes of arguing, the judge, C. W. Keyes, a teacher of forensics, decided that Ypsi's representatives, Barry Alford, Betty Arnet, and Seymour Gordon had not debated as well as the River Rouge team.

Concerning the nationalization of munitions, the opponents maintained that the cost of arms to the government would be greatly decreased and that an adequate defense could only be achieved by this plan.

Ypsi retaliated showing how arms would still cost greatly because of the large profits made from raw materials.

The judge however believed that the affirmative had successfully reestablished their case.

Dec. 5 the Ypsi affirmative team meets Ecorse here.

BOY SCOUT SURVEY FOR TWO COUNTIES

A survey is being conducted by the Washtenaw-Livingston Council of the Boy Scouts of America. This survey is to determine how many boys in these two counties are or are not Boy Scouts. The survey is being conducted from the fourth to the seventh grade inclusive.

Mr. Chapelle says, "This movement is to increase the popularity of Scouting."

The questionnaire given out to the boys includes several questions on personal things, other organizations, leadership and reading.

Anyone else wishing particulars and the questionnaire call at Mr. Wiltse's office.

Folders On P. A. System Arrive

At present no committee has been chosen to investigate the P. A. System, but the school is constantly recieving literature describing and illustrating public address systems. This material is being kept by the office. Mr. Wiltse is also going to write all the large manufacturers of public address systems. When all this material is gathered it will be presented to the student council by Mr. Wiltse. The student council will then take whatever action they see fit.

During the time that this material is being gathered, all the organizations of the school will be trying to raise enough money to pay for this project. Any suggestions as to how money may be raised for this project will be welcomed by the student council.

Junior Division Will Celebrate By Dance

Junior division students are going to celebrate on the eve of Dec. 6. "Never," say the younger ones, "are we going to let our older brothers and sisters enjoy their last days in high school more than we will enjoy ourselves in our first days." To prove their authority they have planned a Christmas dance. It is to be a class dues party sponsored by Miss Evans, Miss Neville, and Mr. Heyman. The students are to be guests of their sponsors if their class dues have been paid, if not they will have to pay admission to the party.

Eight Acts Selected For Comedy By Three Judges

Choruses To Give Christmas Cantata

"The Cantata Noel" will be given at a Vesper service Dec. 15, at 4:00 p. m. under the direction of Mr. Roland Schafer, music director of Ypsilanti High School.

The participants will be the Mothers' Chorus, the Ypsilanti High School Chorus, the 7th-8th grades, and the orchestra.

The soloist will be chosen from the High School Chorus.

There will be two pianos, one on the stage and one in the pit.

Rev. Lawson of the Episcopal Church will give the Christmas message.

There will be no admission for this is a gift of the Music Department to the people.

———YHS———

Three Assemblies Have Been Planned

Due to the Christmas vacation, there will be only three assemblies during December.

At the assembly on Dec. 5th, Owen Cleary, a local lawyer, will speak on a subject of his own choosing.

At the Dec 12th assembly a modernistic Christmas play, "Christmas Is For Children," will be presented by the Dramatics Club under the direction of Mrs. Montgomery. Christmas carols will be sung by the entire school lead by Mr. Roland Schafer.

At the Dec. 19th assembly a Christmas Cantata will be presented under the supervision and direction of the Music department and Mr. Schafer.

Party Stopped Early

The Thanksgiving party was stopped Friday night a half an hour early, because the students tore down the decorations. The Council is requesting the student body not to do this if they want the parties to continue until the closing hour.

Six Inbetween Acts Chosen To Keep Show Moving

Eight acts were chosen from the 18 entered at the comedy tryouts which were held in the auditorium, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 25 and 26. Of the ten inbetween acts entered, six were chosen.

The eight main acts which were picked are as follows: Adams and Haig, Prof. Moxnik; Home Room 303, Captain Ezra's Rowboat; Home Room 109, The Fatal Quest; Dramatics Club, Old Lighthouse; Sophomore Class, Krushmeire's Kindergarten; 7-3 Home Room 200, Miss Iva Neway's School; Craftsman's Club, Super Service; 7-2 Home Room 300, Uncle Jerry Sees the Fashion Show. In the comedy there will also be the following six between acts: Seitz and Koppin; Tap Dance—Sophomore Girls; Betty Squires; G-Men; 7-4 Home Room 306, Minuet; Jug Band.

Three judges were chosen by the council. The judges are as follows: Mr. Schimmel, Miss McCrickett and Mrs. J. R. Lockwood.

The comedy is to be held in the auditorium Dec. 13. The price of admission will be 25 cents.

Comedy Tryouts

Tryouts for the annual school comedy are over. Organizations are now busy perfecting their parts in competition for the grand prizes. Students who were never interested in acting find themselves involved in at least one part of the comedy, and really like the work.

Considerable pleasure and experience are not the only advantages in having the school comedy. The fund in the Student Council greatly increases after the auditorium receipts are taken in from this project. This money is used for the good of the student body. Probably this time the money will be used towards buying the P. A. E. System. Groups which do not win prizes may console themselves with the fact that they really will get something out of their work through all school projects.

The school year wouldn't be complete without the comedy. It is one of the big highlights of the year.

Y

After Those Marks!

Last Thursday while waiting for friend turkey, did you stop to wonder what you had to be thankful for? Maybe you thought that you hadn't any cause for thanksgiving after those report cards. But seriously we all do have some reason for being really thankful.

A few months ago a war was begun between Italy and Ethiopia, and for a while it looked as though all the nations of the world would become involved. As yet they have not, and we seem farther from the conflict than any other country. There is one reason why you should have been thankful.

Then there is another reason. In October, 1929 the market broke. The crash that followed was heard through the economic strata of all the nations of the world. The depression which went hand in hand with the crash, was one of the worst ever known. But things are looking up. Conditions are improving, and experts in economics (Mr. Best) have remarked, that 1936 will see conditions back to the normal level.

So regardless of the report cards, we did have a lot to be thankful for.

Rockefeller Comes

Herbert Rockefeller is a new student who entered Nov. 25. He came from Stillwell, Indiana, and would like very much to get acquainted. He thinks he is going to like Ypsi High and hopes to take an active part in all school activities. If you would like to know any more, ask "Rocky" who will be glad to tell you.

Many of our last year's graduates are working their fingers to the bone at the M.S.N.C., Helen Jean Mowrer, Edward Cahours, Ruth Beck, Bill Harner, Bernard Stadtmiller and Frank Baker, who incidentally spoke so nicely in our assembly Wednesday morning. The Campus must be VERY confusing because for three weeks after he began there, Ed Duffy completely forgot where one class room was located and had to receive directions in the simplest language available from the older, more experienced Normalites.

Alumni Swimmers Will Meet Varsity

Ypsi High's swimming team will meet the Alumni team Dec. 12, at 7:30.

The Alumni has decided advantage over Coach Schaeffer's swimmers. Nearly all the stars of the last few years will be competing in the meet.

Coach Schaeffer will count on Louie Everard and Dick Bibbins to gain most of the Ypsi points. Charles Norton is not likely to take first place from Ernest Klavitter, who placed second in the State Meet last year.

Everard will be counted on to take the diving event and will probably have a free style assignment.

The Alumni will probably take both the medley and free style relay.

Walton League Will Meet Here

Harry Harper, president of the Motor Wheel Corpoation at Lansing, who has perhaps given more towards research in reforestation than any other person, will be honored at the Izaak Walton League of America regional meeting on Dec. 7 at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

Wilfred Raglin, who is one of the 26 members of the Board of Governors, will be chairman and introduce Sam MacCuliere, Mayor Burrell and Harry Harper, the speakers for the evening. After these short talks Walter Hastings will show the newest pictures pertaining ot conservation. Many of these have been taken in Isle Royal, a national conservation park.

Free dancing in the activity room will follow the program.

Students and townspeople are invited.

Many Activities For Ypsilanti "Modelers"

The Ypsi Modelers is the name chosen by our model builders for their organization. The president is Thomas Jefferson, and his assisting officers are: vice president, Dean Allward; secretary, Leslie Pullen; treasurer, Richard Kruse. Mr. Donald Gridley was elected superintendent of construction. Approximately 25 members attend regularly, and many plans have been made for their activities.

BARNEY GETS HIS DEER

It is rumored that "Limpy" Hughes got his first shot just at day break.

Hughes, Elliot Go Hunting For Deer

Deer season opened Friday, Nov. 15. Two members of the Ypsilanti High School student body tried their luck. They were George Elliott and Bernard Hughes. They left for Oscoda on Thursday morning, and after a siege of fixing flat tires they arrived there about 4:30 p. m.

On Friday morning they were out in the woods before dawn. About 7:30 before it was quite light yet, George saw a nice five point buck and dropped him with the first shot. The estimated weight was about 125 pounds. Bernard didn't fare as well as he didn't get a shot the remainder of his stay in Oscoda.

Big Crowd Attends Thanksgiving Party

Senior Division's second dance of the year was presented by the Student Council, Friday night, Nov. 22 from 8:30 to 12. The party took place in the High School Gym which was decorated in the puritan colors of black and white. In the center of the floor loomed a large ship on which Ray Carry's orchestra played.

Refreshments consisting of caramel apples were served at intermission. It was necessary that the dance be stopped early because those attending tore down the decorations about 11:30. It was impossible to dance becaue of the crepe paper on the dance floor.

The proceeds of the dance are to go toward the Public Address fund which has been established in the high school.

G. A. C. Makes Profit In Their Bake Sale

Students from the G. A. C. responded well towards donating the pastries for the bake sale given Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Many of the pupils bought cakes or cookies during class hours which consequently annoyed the teachers.

The G.A.C. think it was quite a success, having made a profit of $7.67.

Basketball Season Starts This Week

Ypsi High opens the 1935-36 basketball season with a game at Jackson Saturday, Dec. 7. The game is expected to be a real contest, as the Jackson team showed considerable ability last year. Jackson, an "A" class school, is a member of the 5A League.

According to Coach Lindsay, Ypsilanti has a capable team this year. There are also a number of substitutes. The opening lineup will probably be taken from the following: Center— Fosdick; left forward— Jones or Horner; right forward— Stadtmiller or Ziegler; left guard— Wales or Fulton; right guard— Coleman or Goodsman.

The second game of the season is a home game with River Rouge Thursday, Dec. 12. This date also opens the swimming season. The meet will be with the alumni.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE FOR 1935-36

Dec. 7—Jackson at Jackson.
Dec. 12—River Rouge at Ypsi.
Dec. 20—Plymouth at Plymouth.

SPEECH CHOIR FEATURES THANKSGIVING ASSEMBLY

A speech choir read an original poem with the assistance of the orchestra and appropriate lighting at the assembly last Wednesday. The poem told of the coming of the Pilgrims to America, of their hardships in the crossing, and of the first winter in New England. It was written and led by Mr. Hill.

After the main part of the program Frank Baker presented to the school a bronze bulletin board on behalf of the Class of '35. Mr. Wiltse accepted the board for the school.

Debaters Defeated By Narrow Margin

Ypsi's negative debaters were narrowly defeated by Dearborn when these two teams clashed Thursday Nov. 21. The judge, Mr. Lippman, gave the decision to the affirmative by a hair's breadth. Ypsi High was represented by Barry Alford, Betty Arnet, and Seymour Gordon.

These debaters were certain that with one addition to their case it will be of winning caliber. This is also the opinion of Mr. Hill, the debate coach. This change is to be an expression of all their points at the outset.

River Rouge will be the next opponent and this plan will be tried out on them. The debate is Tuesday at River Rouge.

Music Classes Hear Local Violin Expert

James M. Hart, local violin expert, gave a series of five lectures Nov. 5 to 8.

Mr. Hart told of the strenuous task of making a violin, and the steps from the blueprints to the careful, accurate measurements, and to the selection of the wood, and varnishes for the bow.

Mr. Hart said, "I have the finest set of tools that money can buy."

In 1923 Mr. Hart as the leader of a band entered the Elks parade in Detroit, under the name of the Denver, Colo. Lodge. They won first place over 42 bands, and the next day played at the Studebaker annual picnic.

Mr. Hart's motto is, "Have an object in life, and do not turn back after you are under way."

He will gladly appraise any instrument brought to his shop at 109 W. Michigan Ave.

Lung Capacity Instrument Purchased By Mr. Osgood

Mr. Osgood has purchased an instrument for the purpose of testing one's lung capacity. Many students have tested their lung capacity by the use of this machine. It has a capacity of 300 cc. The only student who has a lung capacity of 300 cc. who tested it on the instrument, is Robert Kruse. The lung capacities of other students are as follows: Wilber Hickman, 275; Richard McFarlane, 230; David Murray, 250; Hollis Engel, 275; and Bernard Townsend, 225.

Of the faculty members tested, the one having the greatest lung capacity is none other than our own principal, Mr. Wiltse. His lung capacitiy is 288 cc. In an official statement to the press Mr. Wiltse attributed his large lung capacity to the many long talks he has given the students!

Turkey Dinner For Board

A turkey dinner was served to nine board members and Mr. and Mrs. Chapelle and Mr. and Mrs. Wiltse, Nov. 25. The Advanced Home Economics class cooked and served the dinner under the leadership of Ellen Rowden as general chairman.

Charles Watkins Is Assembly Speaker

Mr. Charles Watkins was the speaker at an assembly held Monday, Nov. 18, the third hour. Mr. Wiltse turned the assembly over to Mr. Ungrodt who introduced the speaker. Mr. Watkins' subject was "The Pride of Personal Achievement." He told the students that to become anything worth while you must start preparing yourself in the right way. Only after long preparation can a person point with pride to anything that he has accomplished. Mr. Watkins is an educational worker and formerly was connected with the employment department of General Motors. He is now connected with an educational bureau in Chicago, where he has been for twelve years. He now resides in Muncie, Indiana.

Before the program started Mr. Barnhill was introduced and asked to have more boys in the band and also to have 25 girls to organize a girls' drum and bugle corps.

Write It In Songs

My Dear:

Without a word of warning. I'm on a see saw and living in a great big way because Lula's back in town. I'm top hat with redheads on parade and curly top. Animal crackers are in my soup when I'm reckless and have dinner every night at eight. Pretty lady, I'm in in the mood for love, but I've got a feelin' you're foolin' just because you are my lucky star. When we're in a little gypsy tea room and the Tigar rag does the rhumba is it any wonder everything is okey dokey? Speaking confidently, I'm in love with you and isn't love the grandest thing? Isn't it grand every now and then dancing cheek to cheek? I'd just love to take orders from you back in your own back yard. It never dawned on me that love makes the world go round. You're a latin from Manhattan and we've got love and a dime, so P. S. I love you.

'FIRST AND LAST' AMONG NEW BOOKS IN LIBRARY

Among the new books which have arrived recently in the library are: "First and Last," by Ring Lardner; "Goodbye Mr. Chips," by James Hilton; and "The Sporting Gesture" by Thomas L. Stix.

The book, "First and Last" is a collection of Ring Lardner's humorous writings collected by Gilbert Seldes. Among the writings in the book is "Symptoms of Being Thirty-five," "The Young Immigrunts," "Say It With Oil," "Love Letters Made Easy," "Old Man Liver," "A Reporter In Bed," "Lardner a Terminus for Endless Chain Letters" and many others. As you can see by the titles of these writings each and every story will give your ribs a figurative tickling.

The essay, "Goodbye Mr. Chips" is according to Alexander Wollcott, "a tender and gentle story as warming to the heart and as nourishing to the spirit as any I can remember."

"The Sporting Gesture'" is a collection of short stories on sports, collected by Mr. Stix to show the varying viewpoints of authors on different fields of sports. Among the outstanding stories which the editor has selected are: "Brat Into Boy," by Owen Johnson (football); "The Abysmal Brute" by Jack London (boxing); "Had a Horse" by John Galsworthy (racing).

Scenes From Books Shown In Assembly

An assembly was presented the third hour, Nov. 21 in connection with Book Week. It was in the form of tableaux depicting scenes from good books.

The announcers for the program were Barry Alford, Perry Skelt,, Thomas Haig and Bill Hartman. The first scene was from the book, "Ride a Cock Horse." Ray Bushbine was the only character. Next was a scene from "Little Women." The parts were taken by Helen Katon, Donna Hayward, Jean Faulkner and Mary Gochnour. "Silas Marner" was the third scene and parts were taken by Melvin Kenady and Mary Gochnour. A cowboy scene from the book, "The Virginian," followed and the plainsmen were John Carver, Don Mast, Larry Rowe, Dick Hammet, Carl Chubb, Wendell Braman and Ray Rowe.

Famous Settings Depicted

Fifth on the program was "The Tale of Two Cities" with the parts taken by Frank Starwas, Pearl Seaton, Glen Sinkule and Floyd Northrup. A scene from "Treasure Island" was depicted next and the cast was composed of Terry Smith, Warren Ossenheimer, Henry Sonoski, Maurice Bouchie, Warren Kramer, Arthur Dieterle, William Polling, Edward Klug, Jack Kuster, and Donald Briggs. The pranks of "Tom Sawyer" were depicted by Glen Stout, Junior Stichler, Jack Richards, Ferdinand Herbst and Kenneth Mosher.

Robin Hood Came Back

"Robin Hood" was portrayed by Bob Gaudy, Harold Fry, Junior Dillman, Harry Fowler, Leland Graves. Next, "Hiawatha" was shown by Judson King, Jean Johnston, George Moorman. Mary Battelle depicted "Peter Pan." Louis Golden and Joyce Corbeille portrayed the "Lady of the Lake." The three witches from "Macbeth" were Beulah Stitt, Jane Thoms and Emily Bibbins.

Romeo Pleaded

The balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" was depicted by Ruth Richards and Betty Squiers. The last scene was from the Bible and it showed Moses reading the Ten Commandments. The characters wers Leslie Pullen, Harold Yates, Bob Willoughby, Gerhard Kindshoven, Virginia Tyler, Barbara Neary, Mary Esther Ross and Hazel Lowell.

The program was directed by all the teachers of the English department and Mr. Schafer.
